

Independent Electoral Commission

Communiqué 01

Out of country registration

14 March 2018

Registration out of country will take place at all Embassies, Consulates-General and High Commissions as designated on the DIRCO website.

Citizens can check whether they are registered on the voters' roll via the website of the Electoral Commission (EC) at www.elections.org.za.

If registered inside South Africa then it is not necessary to register again abroad.

To register abroad as a voter

The following are needed for the voter to register abroad:

- An ID document or Smart ID card or Valid Temporary ID Certificate (TIC)
- A valid passport
- Apply to register in person at the South African Embassy, Seoul (Address: 104 Dokseodang-Ro, Yongsan-Gu, Seoul) between 08h30 and 12h30, Monday – Friday, except on Public Holidays honoured by the Embassy.
- Applicant to complete a REC1/OC form \(click here\).

Kindly be advised that an appointment should be made by e-mail to visit the Embassy.

In order to be eligible to vote abroad

The voter will have to inform the Chief Electoral Officer via the completion of an online VEC10 of their intention to vote outside of the country. The online VEC10 will only be available on the website at www.elections.org.za from the date that the NPE2019 election is proclaimed, for a 15 day period.
