

Overview of African International Student Stipend Program

The Korea-Africa Foundation (KAF), in collaboration with the Korea Sanhak Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting industry and academics, as well as education programs in Korea, will arrange an African International Student Stipend Program to support the living expenses of African students residing in Korea, thereby increasing opportunities for exchanges between Korean and African youth and laying the groundwork for strengthening the partnership between Korea and Africa.

1. Eligible Recipients

- African Students currently enrolled at a university in Korea, nominated by their respective Embassy

2. Support Period

- 4 months
- from September to December (Fall Semester 2026)

3. Stipend Amount

- KRW 300,000 per month per student

4. Selection Process

- Each Embassy directly selects and nominates one outstanding and promising student, and submits the completed documents to the KAF

5. Fund Disbursement

- The Korea Sanhak Foundation will remit a fixed amount on a monthly basis to the Embassy's designated account, and the Embassy will be responsible for disturbing the funds to the selected student
- The Embassy is required to submit monthly proof of remittance (e.g., a bank transfer receipt) to Korea Sanhak Foundation
